Revenue by Customer Segment

Champion customers drive the majority of revenue, making retention of high-value customers a key growth priority.

Key Findings

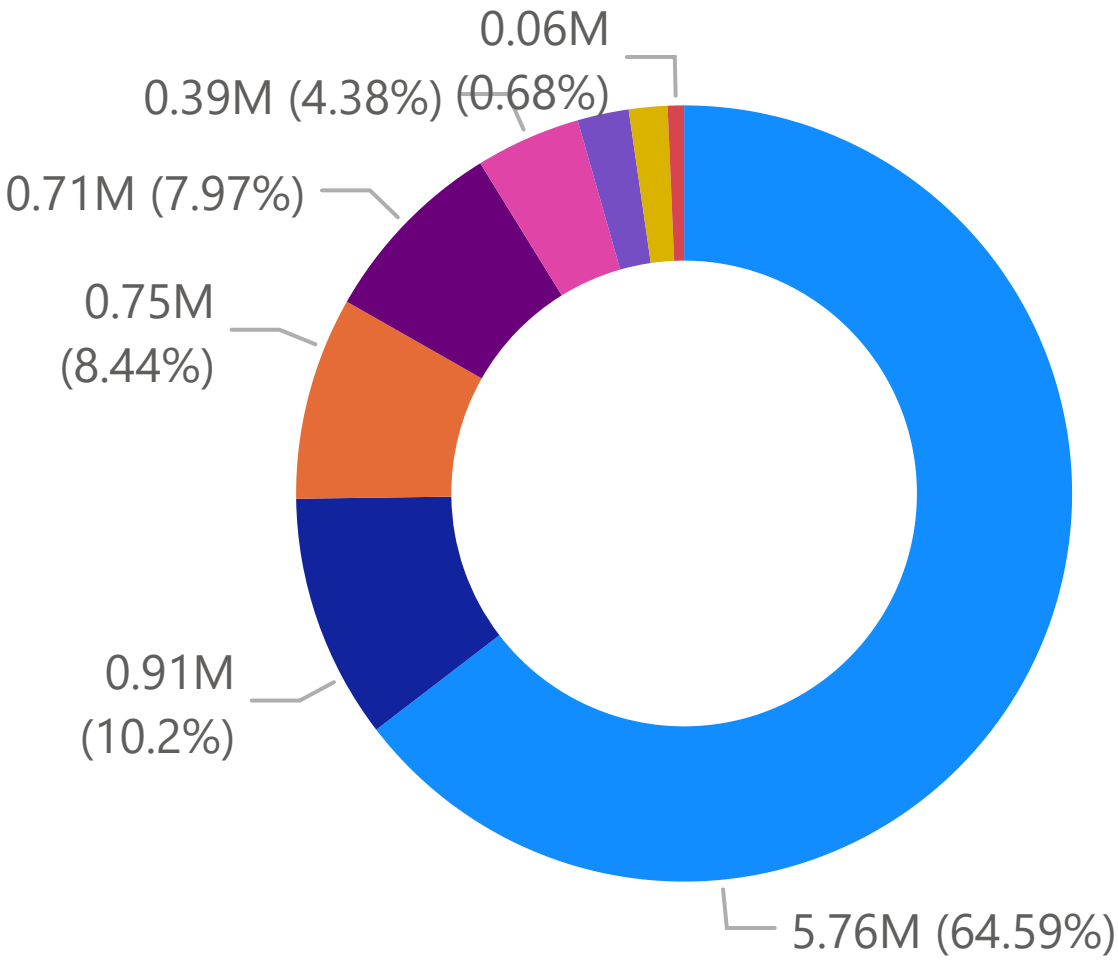

- Revenue peaks in Q4, especially November.
- Champion customers generate nearly 65% of revenue.
- Retention drops sharply after the first purchase month.
- High-risk customers create a targeted reactivation opportunity.

Executive Takeaway: Revenue is concentrated among Champion customers and peaks in Q4, suggesting retention and seasonal planning should be the primary growth levers.

Retention drops sharply after the first purchase month, suggesting that second-purchase campaigns may be the highest-impact retention opportunity.

Retention Takeaway: The steep drop after first purchase suggests a second-purchase campaign should be prioritized.
